PORTSMOUTH PUBLIC LIBRARY
PORTSMOUTH, VIRGINIA

7-7-75
Dyett
silently the doors swing open life into the building pours

the sound of
VOICES
RINGING
echo on ceiling
and floors

another day
has started
and many things
we'll learn

understanding and fellowship . . .

. . . along with the knowledge
we've earned

within these walls are memories
of days and years gone past

NEVER TO BE FORGOTTEN
WITH FEELINGS
THAT WILL ALWAYS LAST

the people
we have met here

and the experiences
we have shared

will always BE a TREASURE

in the reflections of those who cared

ADMIRALS HAVE STRONG START

Under the direction of first year coach John Sumner, the Admirals started the 72-73 season stronger. One of the big surprises was a 53-52 upset over district leader Churchland. Due to inexperience among the many young players the Admirals managed only one more victory the remainder of the season. Many times Coach Sumner had four Sophomores in the game. With the youth and talent Coach Sumner has developed, the 73-74 season cannot help but be successful.

Back row, left to right; Lester Peters (sophomores), Harvey Jones (sophomore), Jenson Baker (Junior), and Glynn Moore (Junior). Front row; Michael Mitchell (Sophomore), Mike Taylor (Senior), Barry Dunston (Sophomore), and Alben Sellers (Junior).

The jumping ability of Glynn Moore (35) resulted in many Admiral rebounds and tipoffs.

MATMEN

WILSON

Although the wrestling team struggled through the season with only one victory, that win couldn't have been more satisfying for coaches Richard Huneycutt and Rusty Scales as the matmen crushed arch-rival Wilson 35-17. Inexperience was one of the main opponents of the team as this was the first year for many of the wrestlers. Still, the Admirals sent Richard "Truck" Grimsley, John Thompson, and Glenn Smith to the Regional meet and Grimsley also wrestled in the State meet. Other outstanding wrestlers were Mike Draughon, John McKay, and James Vogler. Better luck to the '73-'74 team!

BASEBALL TEAM GETS NEW COACH

The 1973 baseball team acquired a new coach, Mr. Jerry Shackelford when former coach Willis Bell stepped up to the position of Athletic Director. Coach Shackelford, aided by assistant coach Mr. Sneed, took a very young squad and by the end of the season had them working as a great team. There are only three seniors on the team: David Monell, John Neece, and Johnny Slaughter. The team didn't do as well as expected in conference play (4-5), but did beat Churchland and All Southeastern District pitcher Merle Henkel 2-0 and squeezed by district champ Deep Creek by the score of 2-1. Cradock was led on the field by Kelly Miller (All Southeastern District, second team), David Monell, Vonney Schultz, Charles Edwards, Richard Harmon, Harvey Jones, and Jerry Chinn. Wayne McClellan was the top pitcher, all four conference wins. Other outstanding players were Donnie Cox, Keith Brinson, Tony Tesseneear, and Johnny Slaughter. With the youth on the squad and the coaching ability of Coach Shackelford, the 1974 baseball team should be a top district contender.

NETMEN HAVE GREAT SEASON

The 1973 Admiral Tennis Team, led by coach Jack Precythe, had another successful season, winning ten and losing only three. Cradock was led on the courts by the top six: Chris Cooke, Tommy Stenzel, Alben Sellers, Ira Rice, William Bast, and James Vogler. Unfortunately, Alben Sellers was hurt close to the end of the season and Coach Precythe had to call on backup men Terry Dorn and Terry Smith to replace him. Thelma Loehr became the first female tennis player at Cradock this year when she joined the team. Other outstanding players were Robert Anderson and David Ditter. With four of his top six graduating, Coach Precythe is expecting good things next year from young players such as Mike Turner, David Perron, Mike Stricklin, and Richard Davis. The 1974 team should have another highly successful year. Good luck to Coach Precythe and the upcoming team!
